Read through the task and instructions below before you start planning and writing your answers.

TASK: COMPREHENSIVELY DESCRIBE SMOKING AS A CULTURAL CHANGE

A cultural change is a redefinition of accepted behaviour in society.

Instructions

Read the resource booklet and the task before you start planning and writing your answer. Use the material in the resource booklet to help you respond to the task.

You are required to comprehensively describe smoking as a cultural change. Use at least two relevant social studies concepts in your description of this cultural change.

To do this, answer the following three parts of the task.

- (a) Describe smoking as a cultural change and the individuals/groups/society(ies) involved. Start your answer on page 4.
- (b) Describe, in depth:
 - at least TWO processes that led to the cultural change
 - at least TWO contrasting points of view about the change. Points of view can include opinions and beliefs of individuals/groups/society(ies). Start your answer on page 6.
- (c) Comprehensively describe the reasons why the processes that led to the change were important for the individuals/groups/society(ies) involved. Start your answer on page 8.

You can answer each part of the task by using:

- paragraphs
- bullet points
- diagrams
- pictures
- graphic organisers.

Use the table on page 3 to help you plan your response. Begin your answers on page 4.
