INSTRUCTIONS

Answer ONE of the four questions below.

Make sure the question you choose suits a classical text that you have studied.

You may answer using short and/or extended paragraphs, and may support your answer with bullet points, diagrams, and/or annotated sketches.

You must support your answer with relevant evidence from the named classical text.

Space for planning is provided on page 3. Begin your answer on page 4.

EITHER: QUESTION ONE

With reference to a named classical text:

- explain in detail ONE significant leadership decision that a character makes, and why he or she makes that decision
- discuss in what way(s) this decision would or would not have been typical for a leader of the classical society for which the text was produced.

OR: QUESTION TWO

With reference to a named classical text:

- explain in detail ONE character's response to a difficult situation
- discuss in what way(s) this response shows the character challenging and/or supporting accepted social and/or cultural roles* of the classical society for which the text was produced.

 Roles may be, but are not limited to, gender, class, religious, or political.*

OR: QUESTION THREE

With reference to a named classical text:

- explain in detail ONE significant religious, social, or cultural belief held by a character
- discuss the impact the belief had on the decisions and/or actions of your chosen character.

OR: QUESTION FOUR

With reference to a named classical text:

- explain in detail ONE literary convention used by the author
- discuss the way(s) this literary convention communicates ideas and/or values of the classical society for which the text was produced.

 Literary conventions may include, but are not limited to, theme, characterisation, style, narrative / subject matter, structure, imagery, techniques, conventions of oral poetry, staging, or rhetorical features.*
