Tommy's Scenario (continued)

It's Saturday night and Tommy has decided to go to a friend's party with his long-term girlfriend, Cassandra. The party is really busy, with lots of kids from school there having fun. Tommy and Cassandra go outside to get some fresh air and notice a group of their friends standing in a small huddle. A girl they know, Shelley, has a joint of cannabis and offers it to the group. Some of the group try it, but some say "no thanks" and pass it on, including Cassandra.

Tommy feels awkward. He doesn't want to smoke the cannabis due to the negative impact it had on an aunt of his, but he also does not want to offend the group.
