STATEMENTS (Choose ONE)

1. An effective narrative structure is the key to maintaining the audience's attention.
2. It is the way that characters change in a text that makes it worth reading.
3. New Zealand writing gives us a lens through which we can see ourselves.
4. A successful text skilfully combines moments of darkness and light.
5. A text set in a challenging environment has much to teach us.
6. By paying attention to the minor characters, we gain a deeper understanding of a text.
7. The careful use of language is what makes a text valuable.
8. The role of a good writer is to challenge the audience's preconceptions.
