INSTRUCTIONS

For all responses in this examination you may choose a live performance that you participated in as an actor or have seen this year. For 2020, this can include a recorded live drama performance.

If you choose to write about the same performance for each question, you should be careful not to repeat information from previous responses.

You may find this list of terms useful.

Elements include role, time, place, situation, action, tension, mood, contrast, focus, and symbol.

Techniques include the use of:

- voice (e.g. pitch, pace, pause, inflection, tone, volume, breathing)
- body (e.g. gesture, posture, body awareness, eye contact, facial expression)
- movement (e.g. timing, direction, energy)
- space (e.g. levels, personal, general).

Technologies include sound, lighting, set, costume, properties, digital projection, set design, special effects, and make-up.

Conventions involve ways of working in drama/theatre that explore meaning, or deepen understanding, or are established practices. They could include, but are not limited to:

- | | |
|-------------------------------|----------------------------|
| • aside | • split focus |
| • entrances and exits | • split stage |
| • flashback and flash-forward | • spoken thoughts |
| • narration | • stage directions |
| • slow motion | • still image |
| • soundscape | • telephone conversations. |

QUESTION ONE: Achieving a goal

Choose a live performance that you participated in as an actor or have seen this year.

Title of performance: _____
Name of a character: _____

Think about a scene when this character wanted to achieve something important.

(a) Describe what this character wanted to achieve.

(b) Describe how drama techniques were used to show how important the goal was to the character. Refer to the list of terms on page 2. You may make a labelled sketch to support your answer.

There is more space for this answer over the page ►

QUESTION TWO: Technology

Choose a live performance that you participated in as an actor or have seen this year. You may use the same performance you wrote about in Question One, but do not repeat information in your answer.

Title of performance: _____

Playwright/theatre company: _____

(a) Identify a time and place in the performance.

Select (✓) up to TWO technologies that were used to create time and place in the performance.
