DEFINITION

Context refers to the circumstances within which art is created, e.g. personal, social, historical, cultural, geographical, environmental, economic, political, religious, artistic, gender, philosophical.

Relationship(s) between art and context may include the ways that art reflects, reacts against, is stimulated by, is shaped by, and/or affects the context in which it is created.

EITHER: QUESTION ONE: Early Renaissance (c.1300–1470s)

Select and name TWO early Renaissance art works to use in a discussion of the relationship(s) between art and its political contexts. Both art works may be selected from Plates 1–5 in the resource booklet, or they may be art works of your own choice, or a combination of the two.

With reference to your selected art works:

- (a) explain the relationship(s) between early Renaissance art and its political contexts, and
- (b) evaluate the importance of these relationship(s) for the art of this period.

OR: QUESTION TWO: Late Renaissance (c.1470–1540s)

Select and name TWO art works from the late Renaissance to Mannerist period to use in a discussion of the relationship(s) between art and social contexts. Both art works may be selected from Plates 6–10 in the resource booklet, or they may be art works of your own choice, or a combination of the two.

With reference to your selected art works:

- (a) explain the relationship(s) between art and social contexts, and
- (b) evaluate the impact of social contexts on the art of this period.

OR: QUESTION THREE: Early Modernism (1900–1940)

Select and name TWO early Modernist art works to use in a discussion of the relationship(s) between the concept of challenging tradition and art during this period. Both art works may be selected from Plates 11–15 in the resource booklet, or they may be art works of your own choice, or a combination of the two.

With reference to your selected art works:

- (a) explain the relationship(s) between art and challenging tradition during the period of 1900 to 1940, and
- (b) evaluate the impact of these relationship(s) on the development of modern art during this time.

OR: QUESTION FOUR: Modernist design and architecture (1900–1960)

Select and name TWO Modernist art works and/or buildings to use in a discussion of the relationship(s) between design and the Bauhaus in this period. Both art works may be selected from Plates 16–20 in the resource booklet, or they may be art works of your own choice, or a combination of the two.
