Begin your answer to Part A here. (Refer to Part A of the task, on page 2).

The global refugee crisis is the displacement of 39 million people worldwide (29 million internally and 10 million refugees). It is happening worldwide in ~~more than~~ most <sup>parts</sup> of the world whether its countries taking in refugees or countries who have refugees. The main countries that intake ~~ref~~ refugees are Pakistan (1.7 million), Iran (887,000) and Syria (755,400) and the main countries who have refugees are Iraq (1,428,300), Afghanistan (2,664,300) and Somalia (1,077,000). Most ~~ref~~ refugees have nothing because they leave everything behind when they flee from war, natural disasters or religious problems.

The first ideological response is Humanitarianism. Humanitarians are people who care for others well-being and are willing to help others at all costs. They don't care about the nationality, religion or anything, they only think of everyone as human and equal. The humanitarianism ideology "consists ~~of~~ in never <sup>sacrificing</sup> ~~suffering~~ a human being to a purpose." said Albert Schweitzer.

Another ideological response is ~~the~~ Nationalism. Nationalism is the belief that your nation is the superior to any other nation and wanting to keep it only for people with the same history, language, culture and religion to you. It is also the ~~pride~~ <sup>pride</sup> and honour to represent your nationality.

The ~~response~~ <sup>response to the</sup> humanitarianism, or <sup>ideology</sup> the global refugee crisis were that people ~~who cared~~ <sup>helped</sup> provided aid. One of these people that have provide aid since 2000 is ~~Angelina~~ Angelina Jolie, Angelina Jolie has worked with the UNHCR since 2001 in order to provide aid to millions of refugees around the world. She has made 40 trips and invested more than US$5 million to help refugees.

The response to the Nationalism ideology on the global refugee ~~crisis~~ <sup>crisis</sup> was that an act called the Migration Legislation Amendment Act was passed that stopped ~~the~~ asylum-seekers, seeking refuge in Australia and were sent to the neighboring islands of ~~Manus~~ Nauru and Papua New Guinea. In Nauru there were 801 men, women and children and in Papua New Guinea Manus Island there were 1,093 men. Kevin Rudd the Australia ~~prime minister~~ <sup>prime minister (P.M.)</sup> the time said "asylum seekers would no longer be resettled in Australia." Tony Abbott current Australian P.M. said he wants to "keep Australia for Australians." //
