1	3	This candidate has read and understood the requirements of the task and has attempted to discuss aspects of a problem that is affecting youth today: obesity. They provide two examples that contribute to this: food choices and video games. Whilst these are good examples the candidate has not expanded beyond simple reasons as to the effects of these two things on the future or ways in which lifestyles could be altered to mitigate their effects on obesity in the future, as expected in the essay question. The essay uses phrases and language that is relevant to the topic, it flows in a logical manner and essay-writing conventions have been used. However, the ideas expressed are simple and lack the development required for a higher level of achievement.
