QUESTION ONE: Ein Kindergarten für Hunde (A kindergarten for dogs)

Read Text A on page 2 of the resource booklet.

(a) How did Birgit's life change?

It changed because she finally had company in the house instead of being alone. She has a dog friend named Maja. With Maja around she doesn't have to worry about being bored or alone! Now Birgit is always accompanied by ~~Maja~~ Maja, & as she takes Maja to a kindergarten for dogs and plays with her and also takes lazez around with Maja in a big garden. This is how ~~Be~~ Birgit's life changed.

- (b) Why is the kindergarten a success for both Birgit and Maja? Justify your response using evidence from the text.

The kindergarten is a success for both Birgit and Maja because, Birgit and Maja get to play outside together, pass time. Maja ~~is~~ also gets trained there to behave by the Chef, who is very sympathetic and all the dogs listen to him. Maja finds it great there and so does Birgit. When Birgit brings Maja to the house after the kindergarten, Maja becomes very tired and sleeps for 2 hours when Birgit's ~~husband~~ comes from work, because she ~~keeps~~ has a small pause.

QUESTION TWO: Ein Leben im Zug (Life on the train)

Read Text B on page 3 of the resource booklet.

- (a) What appeals to Lasse about life on the train?

^{can}
 He learns about his country and he meets interesting people. He has a train ticket with unlimited travel, he can travel in 1st class for long trips. ~~He~~

- (b) How does Lasse make his current lifestyle choice work for him?

He has a ~~to~~ train ticket with unlimited travel. He works on his laptop, ~~to~~ his parents are also ok with his lifestyle now. He can go swimming to stay fit. And he can ~~to~~ always buy something to eat. He carries a bag that contains every thing he needs, such as, drink bottle, clothes, laptop, ~~headphones~~, and headphones. And he also has friends who have a train ticket like his, they meet up sometimes and they travel together for a couple of hours. That is how Lasse makes his current lifestyle work for him.

QUESTION THREE: Wie junge Leute einkaufen (How young people shop)

Read Text C on page 4 of the resource booklet.

(a) What arguments are expressed for and against the two methods of shopping?

(i) Online shopping:

Arguments for online shopping:

- It is practical and the best
- You will not forget anything
- The choice is larger, wider range.
- It is so right.

Against:

- Cannot get groceries
- Cannot try stuff ~~to~~, see it in person
- Takes time
- Cannot tell if the colour is right.

(ii) In-store shopping:

Arguments for in-store shopping:

- You get groceries
- Can try stuff, see it in person
- You can get it on the spot.
- You can tell the colours right

Against:

- Might forget stuff
- The choice is limited
- Bad for the environment.

- (b) Out of Sophia, Thomas, and Lena, whose point of view is most like yours? Justify your response using evidence from the text.

None of ~~them~~ their view points aligned with mine. This is because, I only prefer shopping in-store. Their viewpoints were more towards online shopping. Although ~~they did also state that~~ there was one ~~of~~ viewpoint that kind of aligned to mine, ~~that~~ it was Lena's. Lena's perspective is that she likes in-store shopping because she has ~~as~~ friends that help her with her selections. ^{Furthermore, because} ~~and also because~~ she can try stuff on and also check if the colour is right. Those are some of the main reasons I prefer in-store ~~shopper~~ shopping. Therefore, Lena's viewpoint ^{was} kind of ~~at~~ like mine.
