This is not a complete list of all acceptable responses, nor is it an indication of the exact wording required. Assessment judgements are based on the level of understanding shown rather than knowledge of individual lexical items.	These examples are typical of candidates at the score indicated; however, they are not full responses , and are intended to be indicative rather than prescriptive.
Teresa is not happier now as she used to be allowed to go out more often to her friend’s house after school where she played on the computer for a couple of hours and she was also allowed out with her friends until 3 in the morning at the weekend. She also has to walk to school and stay at home and study as her parents have become stricter with her.	N1 – TV, computer, Facebook – cognates
	N2 – 6.00, breakfast, brothers / shower, school, computer
	A3 – Paco – gets up at six, prepares breakfast for the family, does school bags, catches bus etc
	A4 – gets up at six, prepares breakfast for the family, does school bags, catches bus etc / Teresa wakes up at 6.30 but doesn’t get up until 6.50, showers, has breakfast and walks to school.
Paco is happier now, he has to get up earlier than before and he helps his mum with his younger siblings as they have moved further away from his school and they have to take the bus, and even though she works late she can pick them up after school and take them to their after school sports practices.	M5 – Response for either with information about changes in their routine. Paco gets up earlier now to help his mum out with his siblings / Teresa has to go home and study more often instead of going to a friend’s house.
	M6 – Response for Paco and Teresa with information about changes in their routine. Paco gets up earlier and helps out more with his younger siblings he gets to go to sports practices and relax at home in the evenings. Teresa has to go home after school and microwaves something and studies. She used to eat out on Fridays with her parents.
	E7 – Justified response for Paco and / or Teresa including details about what used to happen. Paco is happier because even though he used to get up later because he lived nearer to school, he now helps at night with his younger siblings because his mum now works until 12.00.
	E8 – Fully justified response for Paco and Teresa including details about what used to happen plus supporting information and parental involvement with Teresa. Teresa is not happier now as her parents have become stricter with her, she used to stay out until 3 in the morning with her friends but her parents said she has to study more.
