Classical Studies: Examine the significance of features of work(s) of art in the classical world (91201)

Assessment Criteria

Achievement	Achievement with Merit	Achievement with Excellence
Examine involves: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • using primary source evidence • placing the work(s) of art in their artistic and /or historical context • explaining the features and effect of the work(s) of art • drawing conclusions. The candidate provides a general examination of the features of works of art. Knowledge and interpretation demonstrated are at a basic level, and specific evidence may be lacking. One or more parts of the answer may be underdeveloped or omitted. Conclusions may be simple and basic.	Examine, in depth, involves: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • giving an informed explanation of the features and effects of work(s) of art • drawing conclusions that are supported by primary-source evidence. An informed explanation includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • using primary-source evidence of specific relevance to the context • explaining a range of aspects and /or factors. The candidate incorporates some detail, in an answer demonstrating sound knowledge of the features of works of art and their significance in the classical world. Most parts of the answer include detail, but treatment may be unbalanced. Supporting evidence of specific relevance to the art work is present, and informed / relevant conclusions are drawn.	Examine, with perception, involves: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • giving an explanation that shows insight into the features and effects of work(s) of art • drawing developed conclusions, e.g. how the aesthetic features of a classical work of art reflect the ideals of beauty held by the Greeks and /or Romans. Features of a perceptive explanation may include but are not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • aesthetic impact • reasons for similarities and differences • themes and patterns • cultural expectations. The candidate's answer demonstrates a thorough knowledge of the features of works of art and their significance in the classical world. All parts of the answer include detail. Supporting evidence is relevant, accurate, and consistently provided, and informed / relevant and developed conclusions are drawn.

N0 = No response; no relevant evidence.

* Primary-source evidence refers to specific examples of works of art.

 Conclusions do not need to be explicit, but may spring naturally from parts of the answer.
