Evidence

The candidate comprehensively analyses how the operation of a named cultural process impacts an environment(s).

Maps / diagrams / cross sections may contain information about how the cultural process operates or features within the environment or impacts on the environment.

Candidates may demonstrate understanding of how the environment is impacted over time and space due to the operation of a named cultural process. Candidates are likely to demonstrate insight when they make links between the elements to draw conclusions. Impacts discussed can include the natural and / or cultural environment.
