National Certificate in Offender Management (Level 5)

Level	5
Credits	88

Purpose

This certificate provides a nationally recognised qualification for people working or seeking work as a Principal Corrections Officer within a prison who are engaged in providing safe, secure, and humane containment of inmates whilst working towards reducing reoffending.

The qualification builds on the generic and professional skills and knowledge covered in the prerequisite National Certificate in Offender Management (Level 4) [Ref: 0679], and prepares trainees for team leader roles in the prison environment.

The qualification covers the following:

- planning and coordinating emergency responses in a prison
- monitoring and controlling expenditure in Public Prisons Service cost centres
- demonstrating knowledge of Te Tiriti O Waitangi, and kaupapa and tikanga Māori
- planning, organising, allocating work and monitoring performance
- communicating with, managing, and leading staff
- preparing staff for assessment
- creating and using spreadsheets; and
- demonstrating the concepts and principles of quality and its management.

The qualification is designed for training and assessment in the workplace, although some standards can be achieved off-job. This qualification could lead to higher-level qualifications in the Business field.

Special Notes

Prerequisite: National Certificate in Offender Management (Level 4) [Ref: 0679] or demonstrate similar skills and knowledge.

Recognition of prior learning: applications for recognition of prior learning may be made to The Skills Organisation or accredited providers.

Requirements for Award of Qualification

Award of NZQF National Qualifications

Credit gained for a standard may be used only once to meet the requirements of this qualification.

Unit standards and achievement standards that are equivalent in outcome are mutually exclusive for the purpose of award. The table of mutually exclusive standards is provided on the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) website: http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/standards/standards-exclusion-list/.

Reviewed standards that continue to recognise the same overall outcome are registered as new versions and retain their identification number (ID). Any version of a standard with the same ID may be used to meet qualification requirements that list the ID and/or that specify the past or current classification of the standard.

Transition Arrangements

Version 3

Version 3 was issued following a revision to maintain achievability for candidates. Expiring standards were removed or replaced and the classifications, titles, credit values, and levels of reviewed or revised standards were updated.

Changes to structure and content

- standard 7452 was replaced by standards 27520 and 27521
- standards 7458 and 8499 were removed from the qualification without replacement
- the credit total of the qualification decreased from 97 to 88.

Trainees currently enrolled in programmes leading to the award of version 2 of this qualification may either complete that version or transfer to this version. Trainees who wish to complete version 2 should note that standards 7452 and 8499 expired on 31 December 2011. Reverse transition arrangements for standard 7452 are detailed below.

All new trainees will be enrolled in programmes leading to this version of the qualification.

For detailed information see Review Summaries on the NZQA website.

This qualification contains standards that replace or are substitutes for earlier standards. For the purposes of this version of the qualification, people who have gained credit for the expiring standards are exempt from the requirement to gain credit for the replacement or substitute standards – see table below.

Credit for	Exempt from
7447	11646
7452	27520, 27521

Reverse transition arrangements for expired standard 7452 were included in version 2 of the qualification to avoid disadvantaging candidates who wish to complete that version.

For the purposes of version 2 of the qualification, people who have gained credit for the replacement standards are exempt from the requirement to gain credit for the expired standard – see table below.

Credit for	Exempt from
27520, 27521	7452

It is not intended that anyone is disadvantaged by this revision, and the above arrangements have been designed for a smooth transition. However, anyone who feels they have been disadvantaged may appeal to the ElectroTechnology Industry Training Organisation at the address below.

Previous version of the qualification

Version 2 was republished to include reverse transition arrangements in version 1 – see previous version information below.

Version 2 was issued following a review. The optional standards were removed, and titles, credits were updated to reflect changes resulting from review of standards.

This version of the qualification contains standards that replace earlier standards. For the purposes of this version of the qualification, people who have gained credit for the expiring standards are exempt from the requirement to gain credit for the replacement standards – see table below.
