Transition Arrangements

Version 3 was republished in order to extend the last date for entry into programmes leading to the replaced qualification to 31 December 2016.

This qualification has been reviewed and replaced by the New Zealand Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 4) [Ref: 2338]

The last date for entry into programmes leading to the replaced qualification is 31 December 2016.

The last date to meet the requirements of the replaced qualification will be 31 December 2018 when the qualification will be discontinued. From that date no results can be reported against the qualification.

Trainees currently enrolled in programmes leading to the replaced qualification must complete the requirements by 31 December 2018.

For detailed information see Review Summaries on the NZQA website.

It is the intention of NZQA Māori Qualifications Services that no existing trainee should be disadvantaged by these transition arrangements. However, anyone who feels that they have been disadvantaged may appeal to NZQA, Māori Qualifications Services at the address below.

National Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 4)

Level	4
Credits	60

Purpose

The National Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 4) [Ref: 1077] follows and builds on the knowledge and skills recognised by the National Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 3) [Ref: 1076]. Holders of this qualification are likely to be responsible for informing tikanga practices within Tourism Māori operations and enterprises.

The compulsory section recognises kaupapa Māori and generic industry knowledge required to work in different facets of the tourism industry in Aotearoa. Concepts such as whanaungatanga, manaakitanga, kaitiakitanga and tikanga practices, which were examined in the Level 3 national certificate, are covered in more depth by the standards included in this qualification.

The elective section allows candidates to select from a diverse range of outcomes to allow the qualification to be focused on the specific needs of the individual, business, or workplace. These include business administration, business operations and development, community recreation, social services, computing, tourism, or any field Māori standards.

The National Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 4) [Ref: 1077] may lead on to further qualifications such as the National Diploma in Tourism Māori (Level 5) [Ref: 1096], or other qualifications in Māori, tourism or business administration.

Credit Range

	Compulsory	Elective
Level 3 credits	-	0-15
Level 4 credits	30	0-15
Level 5 or above credits	15	0-15
Total	45	15

Requirements for Award of Qualification

Award of NZQF National Qualifications

Credit gained for a standard may be used only once to meet the requirements of this qualification.

Unit standards and achievement standards that are equivalent in outcome are mutually exclusive for the purpose of award. The table of mutually exclusive standards is provided on the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) website: <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/standards/standards-exclusion-list/>.

Reviewed standards that continue to recognise the same overall outcome are registered as new versions and retain their identification number (ID). Any version of a standard with the same ID may be used to meet qualification requirements that list the ID and/or that specify the past or current classification of the standard.

 - The minimum level for standards from the Elective Section has decreased from Level 4 to Level 3.
 - The Management subfield has been replaced by the Business Administration and Business Operations and Development subfields.
 - The First Line Management domain has been removed.
 - The Outdoor Recreation subfield, under the Community and Social Services field, has been added.
 - The Recreation and Sport – Programmes and Events domain, under the Community and Social Services field and Recreation and Sport subfield, has been added.
 - The Computing subfield has been restricted to just standards from the Generic Computing domain.
 - Subfield Communication Skills, under the Humanities field, has been removed.
 - The restriction to the Tourism Māori subfield under Field Māori has been removed and standards can now be chosen from anywhere in the field.
 - The Tourism subfield has been restricted to just standards from the Visitor Services domain.

For detailed information see Review Summaries on the NZQA website.

People currently enrolled in programmes leading to the award of version 1 of the qualification may complete that version or transfer to version 2 of the qualification. Please note that candidates who wish to finish version 1 but have not yet completed standard 5070 have until December 2011 to do so.

This qualification contains a standard that replaced expiring standards. For the purposes of this qualification, people who have gained credit for the expiring standards are exempt from the requirement to gain credit for the replacement standard - see table below.

Credit for	Exempt from
17388, 17390	25954

It is the intention of the Māori Qualifications Services (MQS) that no person should be disadvantaged by these changes. Any person who believes they have been disadvantaged should contact MQS at the address below.

Previous versions of the qualification

Reverse transition has been included to ensure that all candidates currently enrolled in version 1 of the qualification are able to complete the requirements of that version. This qualification contains the lapsing First Line Management domain, which has been replaced by other classifications – see table below.
