National Diploma in Māori Performing Arts (Tutoring) (Level 6)

Level 6

Credits 125

Purpose

The National Diploma in Māori Performing Arts (Tutoring) (Level 6) is a qualification designed for people following a career which requires significant expertise in Māori Performing Arts. This includes people who are working in accredited training programmes, schools and workplaces.

The compulsory section of this qualification reflects competence in researching and compiling resource material for teaching Māori performing arts and in tutoring waiata. The elective section recognises the ability to tutor in three of the following performance areas; waiata a ringa, poi, haka, or whakaraka.

Holders of the qualification are able to tutor Māori performing arts in a cultural context.

This national qualification will lead on from the National Certificate in Māori Performing Arts (Level 4) [Ref: 0701].

Special Notes

Candidates must have achieved the National Certificate in Māori Performing Arts (Level 4) or demonstrate equivalent knowledge and skills.

On application to accredited providers people may be granted recognition of prior learning (RPL) for unit standards in this qualification. Candidates for RPL will be assessed in accordance with NZQA guidelines.

Credit Range

Requirements for Award of Qualification

The National Diploma in Māori Performing Arts (Tutoring)(Level 6) [Ref: 1088] will be awarded to people who are credited with a minimum total of 125 credits and who meet the compulsory, and elective list 1 requirements.

Award of NQF Qualifications

Credit gained for a standard may be used only once to meet the requirements of this qualification.

Unit standards and achievement standards that are equivalent in outcome are mutually exclusive for the purpose of award. The table of mutually exclusive standards is provided in the Qualifications Authority Rules and Procedures publications available at www.nzqa.govt.nz/ncea/.

Reviewed standards that continue to recognise the same overall outcome are registered as new versions and retain their identification number (Id). Any version of a standard with the same Id may be used to meet qualification requirements that list the Id and/or that specify the past or current classification of the standard.
