National Diploma in Tourism Māori (Level 5)

Level	5
Credits	120

Purpose

The National Diploma in Tourism Māori (Level 5) is intended for people who are already working or pursuing a career in tourism within Aotearoa. Holders of this qualification are likely to be practitioners of tikanga within Tourism Māori operations and enterprises.

This national diploma follows on from the National Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 4) [Ref: 1077] and is designed to extend and enhance the knowledge base attained by those people pursuing a business career in tourism. This diploma also serves to validate the skills and knowledge of those already engaged in the tourism industry within Aotearoa.

Concepts covered by the compulsory standards include whanaungatanga, manaakitanga, kaitiakitanga, and tikanga practices. The compulsory section includes a component for research and development within the tourism industry. The elective section allows candidates to choose from a wide range of standards that recognise knowledge and skills required in business operations and development, communication skills, Māori, and tourism.

Credit Range

	Compulsory	Elective 1	Elective 2
Level 5 credits	70	0-10	0-20
Level 6 or above credits	20	0-10	0-20
Total	90	10	20

Requirements for Award of Qualification

Award of NZQF National Qualifications

Credit gained for a standard may be used only once to meet the requirements of this qualification.

Unit standards and achievement standards that are equivalent in outcome are mutually exclusive for the purpose of award. The table of mutually exclusive standards is provided on the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) website: <http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/qualifications-standards/standards/standards-exclusion-list/>.

Reviewed standards that continue to recognise the same overall outcome are registered as new versions and retain their identification number (ID). Any version of a standard with the same ID may be used to meet qualification requirements that list the ID and/or that specify the past or current classification of the standard.
