National Diploma in Public Sector Māori (Level 5)

Level 5

Credits 120

Purpose

The National Diploma in Public Sector Māori (Level 5) recognises a range of competencies required for public sector employees delivering services to Māori on behalf of the Crown.

This qualification is for people who work in a public sector agency and are involved in providing services directly to Māori communities or groups on behalf of the Crown. This may be in the capacity of community development, funding advisory, community education or similar roles.

This qualification is also suited to people who are actively engaged in the planning, implementation and review of Māori initiatives within a public sector agency. These may be people in middle to senior positions that are responsible for leading or significantly contributing towards Māori initiatives within their perspective agencies. Māori initiatives such as Māori effectiveness strategies and plans, building internal capability, Māori communications, Māori development or projects that have specific provision for Māori are relevant.

The standards in the Compulsory section recognise competencies in developing and maintaining relationships with Māori stakeholders, public sector and Māori engagement, Te Tiriti o Waitangi, understanding key concepts related to hui Māori, tikanga and kaupapa Māori and public sector core skills.

The Elective section allows flexibility in meeting specific agency requirements and learner education and/or career progression.

This qualification is intended both for people seeking recognition of current competence for existing knowledge and skills they use in their work, and for people acquiring skills and knowledge in a range of education settings.

This qualification builds on the skills and knowledge recognised in qualifications, such as:

- National Certificate in Public Sector Services (Community Advisors) (Level 5) [Ref: 1106]
- National Certificate in Project Management (Level 4) [Ref: 1500]
- National Certificate in Public Sector Services (Client/Customer Service) (Level 4) [Ref: 0660]
- National Certificate in Reo Māori (Level 4) [Ref: 0426]
