

Main changes resulting from the review

- All unit standards were updated to meet current technical requirements, current industry practices, and to include new legislation where applicable.
- Evidence requirements were added to range statements and amended to clarify assessment.
- Assessment guidelines were added to some unit standards to assist interpretation.
- Unit standards 11850 and 11851 were replaced by unit standards 21391 and 21393, respectively.
- Unit standard 11853 increased in credit to more accurately reflect the time taken for delivery, learning, and assessment.
- Unit standards 16650, 16651, 16652, and 16656 were replaced by unit standards 21387, 21388, 21392, and 21394 respectively; they have higher credit levels to reflect the time taken for delivery, learning, and assessment.
- Unit standard 16655 decreased in credit value as the previous credit allocation had been in excess to the actual time taken for delivery, learning, and assessment.
- Unit standards 16659 and 19036 were replaced by unit standards 21386 and 21389 respectively; they have lower credit levels to reflect the time taken for delivery, learning, and assessment.
- Unit standard 16652 was replaced by unit standard 21392, which has a higher level to reflect its content.
- Unit standards 16656 and 16659 were replaced by unit standards 21394 and 21386 respectively; these have lower levels to reflect their content.
- Unit standard 16657 was replaced by unit standards 21395, 21396, and 21397.
- Unit standard 16663 was replaced by unit standard 21398.
- The content of unit standard 16660 was integrated into unit standards 21385, 16653, 21387, 21395, 21396 and 21390, and will expire and not be replaced.
- The content of 16662 was integrated into unit standards 16653, 21390 and 21398, and will expire and not be replaced.

Unit standards categorised as category C or D expire at the end of December 2007.
