Reason for the revision

The revision is to correct an error in Element 2 and its performance criterion. The vehicle recovery driver must hold a D endorsement if towing a vehicle which is carrying dangerous goods. Other formal requirements apply to the vehicle being towed, not to the driver.

Main changes resulting from the revision

- element 2 has been deleted
- performance criterion 2.1 has been corrected, and renumbered as performance criterion 1.5
- references to Land Transport Safety Authority have been changed to Land Transport New Zealand.
