Specialist Rescue	Urban Search and Rescue - Operations	18516

The Fire and Rescue Services Industry Training Organisation has decided that the unit standard listed above, which was registered in August 2001, should have its period of registration extended.

The reason for the rollover is to maintain the currency of the unit standard until it has been reviewed.

Special Note 2 was amended to improve access to updated and relevant resource materials. Special Note 4 was updated to reflect current legislation.

The review of this unit standard is planned to take place during 2006.
