

FIELD SERVICE SECTORExpiry of unit standards 4135 and 4136

Subfield	Domain	Id
Maritime	Sea Survival and Sea Safety	4135, 4136

In April 1996 the Maritime Industry Training Organisation (now Competenz) undertook an early review of the above two unit standards to take account of the concerns expressed by the Coastguard Federation. The unit standards were replaced by unit standards 6914 and 6915, which were developed to meet safe operation and legislative requirements.

Due to an administrative error the replaced standards were not removed from the National Qualification Framework. This error was corrected in February 2005.

Date report publishedFebruary 2005

Unit standards 4135 and 4136 were due to expire on December 1996. This date has now been extended to December 2005. However it is strongly recommended that the replacement unit standards are used instead.
