Competenz has rolled over the unit standards listed above to maintain their currency until they are reviewed.

These unit standards are being rolled over so that they can be reviewed together with related unit standards in the Maintenance and Diagnostics in Mechanical Engineering domain in December 2008.

The opportunity was taken to revise the unit standards to update the titles of prerequisite unit standards, the accreditation option to match AMAP 0013 (participation by industry in a visit), and legislation and references; and to correct small grammatical errors.
