

FIELD SERVICE SECTORReview of Hospitality qualifications*National Diploma in Hospitality Management [Ref: 0769]*National Diploma in Hospitality (Business Management) [Ref: 0883]

The Hospitality Standards Institute has completed the review of the qualifications listed above.

Date new versions publishedJune 2006

The next qualification review is planned to take place during 2010.

Summary of review and consultation process

Over 2005, Advisory Groups representing the different sectors of the Hospitality industry were convened to look at their existing qualifications to see if they were still fit for purpose as a result of unit standard reviews that had taken place in 2004 and 2005. The qualifications were examined and amended to reflect current industry needs. In 2005, the Hospitality Standards Institute also clarified the career pathway for candidates and how existing and new qualifications linked together. This work was completed in late 2005 and approved by the relevant industry groups.

The qualifications at certificate level and diploma level are being registered in two stages. This review report relates to the diploma level qualifications.

Main changes resulting from the review

The structure of the National Diploma in Hospitality Management (Level 5) [Ref: 0769] has been amended in order to make the management emphasis of the qualification more transparent.

The purpose and credit requirements of the National Diploma in Hospitality (Business Management) (Level 5) [Ref: 0883] have been amended to emphasise a general business management skill set. Listed unit standards have been replaced by elective sets allowing credits from relevant subfields and domains; small business management unit standards have been removed; and level 5 credit requirements have been increased.

A new national diploma, for people with prior experience in hospitality operations and who wish to acquire the knowledge and skills to manage a business unit within a large enterprise, has been developed:

- National Diploma in Hospitality (Operational Management) (Level 5) with strands in Kitchen Management, Food and Beverage Management, and Rooms Division Management [Ref: 1245]
