Reason for the Revision

NZQA National Qualifications Services is undertaking a reclassification of standards and qualifications in field Business.

Unit standards 22133-22141, and 22144 were incorrectly classified in the expiring Management subfield when they were registered in August 2006. Unit standard 19799 was registered in the Management subfield in February 2003 and revised and incorrectly classified in August 2006.

All the standards have now been reclassified in preparation for the registration of a new Employment Relations qualification.

They have been issued as new versions in the correct subfield name as shown below. No other changes were made to the unit standards.
