

FIELD CORE GENERICRevision and Rollover of unit standard 16688

Subfield	Domain	Id
Core Generic	Work and Study Skills	16688

The Extractive Industry Training Organisation has revised and rolled over standard 16688, Identify and manage the effects of shift work.

Date new versions published

August 2007

Planned review date

December 2008

Reason for the revision

Version 2 of the standard had a moderation option that was inconsistent with AMAP 0114. Although version 3 of the standard has been published on a template that does not show the moderation option, the ITO wanted to remove the inconsistency to help prevent future moderation issues.

Main changes resulting from the revision

The standard has been rolled over and published on the new template.
