Subfield	Domain	Id
Manufacturing Skills	Manufacturing Processes	19508

The Competenz has decided that the unit standard above should have its period of registration extended, so it can be reviewed with other unit standards in the Manufacturing Processes domain. The standard has also been revised.

The reason for the rollover is to maintain the currency of the unit standard until it has been reviewed.

The review of this unit standard is planned to take place during 2009.
