Transition

As there are substantial differences between the two qualifications, it is recommended that people currently enrolled in programmes leading to the award of the National Certificate in Commercial Road Transport (Logging Truck Driver) [Ref: 0942] complete that qualification. However, they may transfer their results to this qualification if they choose.

The last date for entry to the National Certificate in Commercial Road Transport (Logging Truck Driver) [Ref: 0942] is 31 March 2009. The last date for assessment for the National Certificate in Commercial Road Transport (Logging Truck Driver) is 31 December 2010.

People currently enrolled in programmes leading to the National Certificate in Commercial Road Transport (Goods Service) with the Log Transport Strand [Ref: 0680] (reviewed March 2006) may also wish to transfer to this qualification. The last date for assessment for the National Certificate in Commercial Road Transport (Goods Service) with the Log Transport Strand is December 2011.

Tranzqual will continue to recognise the replaced qualifications.

For the purposes of this qualification, people who have gained credit for the following expiring standard are exempt from the requirement to gain credit for another standard – see table below.

While this exemption is valid for the purpose of completing this qualification, it should be noted that if a candidate does not already hold a Class 5 driver licence, they will need to complete standard 24089 in order to satisfy current NZ Transport Agency requirements for that licence.

For the purposes of this qualification, people who have gained credit for the expiring standards are exempt from the requirement to gain credit for the replacement standard – see table below.

Reverse transition has been included in the expiring qualification to ensure that it continues to be achievable until the last date for assessment. The following section has been inserted in the transition arrangements for the expiring qualification:

This qualification contains standard 15164, which expires on 31 December 2008. Standard 24089 has been recommended as the alternative standard. For the purposes of this qualification, people who have gained credit for the alternative standard are exempt from the requirement to gain credit for the expiring standard.
