Learning State (trading name of the Public Sector Training Organisation) has completed the revision and rollover of the unit standard listed above.

Date new versions published December 2009

Planned review date December 2010

Summary

This unit standard, titled Read and interpret legislation, was revised to correct technical inaccuracies and was rolled over to extend its date for review so it could be included in the reviewed National Certificate in Public Sector Compliance Management (Road Transport) (Level 4) [Ref: 1170].

The national certificate is designed for transport officers at the New Zealand Transport Agency (NZTA), and NZTA initially provided suggested changes to the unit standard in terms of accuracy.

Comment was sought and provided by the Local Government Industry Training Organisation, as they are planning to include it in a new resource management compliance qualification. Comment was invited from education providers who had used the unit standard in recent years, and moderation feedback was sought. A member of State Services Commission's Legal team also provided advice and comment on the changes.

The unit standard will be reviewed as part of the scheduled review (December 2010) of all the unit standards in the Public Sector Core Skills domain.

Main changes

- The ranges under performance criteria 1.1 and 2.2 were updated to ensure accuracy and match to the performance criteria.
- Minor grammatical and punctuation corrections were made.
- The purpose section was edited for consistency with the wording of element 3.
- The accreditation information was updated to match the latest version of the AMAP.

Impact on existing accreditations, registered qualifications, and Accreditation and Moderation Action Plan (AMAP)

None.
