

FIELD MĀORI*Revision of Tourism Māori qualification

This revision report was first published in September 2004 and was republished in August 2010 following the addition of reverse transition arrangements to enable the qualification to be achieved until its review is completed.

National Certificate in Tourism Māori (Level 3) [Ref: 1076]

NZQA Māori Qualifications Services has revised the qualification listed above that was registered in January 2004.

Date new version of report published August 2010

Date new version published September 2004

The review of this qualification is planned to take place in 2006

Reason for the revision

This revision was undertaken following Aviation, Tourism and Travel Training Organisation's review of unit standards in the Visitor Services Domain. As a result of that review two new unit standards were developed (20489 and 20490), and unit standard 18229 was categorised as expiring.

Main changes resulting from the revision

Changes to structure and content

- unit standard 20489 has replaced 18229
- the compulsory credits have decreased from 53 to 49
- the elective rule has been changed to require a balance of credits to meet a minimum of 60 credits.

Transition

People currently working towards version 1 of this qualification may either complete the requirements for that version or transfer their results to this version of the qualification. The last date for people to complete version 1 is 31 December 2005.

This qualification contains a unit standard that has been expired. For the purposes of this qualification people who have gained credit for the expiring standard are exempt from the requirement to gain credit for the replacement standard.
