Summary

All standards in domain Food Safety have been rolled over to extend their registration date until a full review takes place during 2010-2011. Impending legislation, sponsored by New Zealand Food Safety Authority (NZFSA) will make significant changes to food safety compliance requirements. The Hospitality Standards Institute will conduct a full review of all standards in domain Food Safety when the passage of that legislation through parliament is completed.

Main changes

- Special note on legislation in standards 168 and 20666 has been updated to match other subfield Hospitality standards reviewed in 2009.
- Definition of 'establishment requirements' has been made consistent across the standards in domain Food Safety.
