

FIELD BUSINESS*Review of Public Sector Compliance Management qualification*National Certificate in Public Sector Compliance Management (Road Transport) (Level 4) [Ref: 1170]

Learning State has completed the review of the qualification above.

Date new version published June 2010

The next qualification review is planned to take place during 2014.

Summary of review and consultation process

The purpose of the review was to remove expired or expiring standards and to ensure the new version of the qualification matched current knowledge and skill requirements of the New Zealand Transport Agency's (NZTA's) transport officers. A series of meetings took place with NZTA representatives during the latter half of 2009 to make and endorse the changes.

Transition

The last date for assessment for previous versions of the qualification is 31 December 2010. As there are no candidates currently working towards versions 1 or 2 of this qualification there are no transition implications, and all new candidates will be enrolled in version 3 of the qualification.

This qualification contains a classification that replaces an earlier classification that has lapsed. For the purposes of version 3 of this qualification, people who have gained credit for standards in the lapsed domain may continue to use those credits to meet the qualification requirements of the Elective.

Standards from	Are treated as Standards from
Business > Management > First Line Management	Business > Business Operations and Development > People Development and Coordination

It is not intended that anyone be disadvantaged by this review, and the above arrangements have been designed for a smooth transition. Anyone who feels they have been disadvantaged may appeal to:
