Date new versions published

August 2011

Planned review date

December 2016

Summary

The unit standards listed above have been reviewed as part of the MQS planned review cycle, to ensure they are current, clear, logical, and fit for purpose.

A hui was held with the Whakaruruhau on the 9th and 10th June 2011 and the following were considered:

- accuracy and appropriateness of the content of the unit standards
- currency of unit standards
- whether the levels and credit values correspond to the outcome of the standards
- appropriateness of the classification of the standards.

The Whakaruruhau identified that these standards would be a better fit within the Te Ara Nunumi – Bereavement Pathways Māori subfield, as the outcomes align with the areas of learning covered by this subfield.

The Whakaruruhau also discussed the need for an explanatory note related to tapu and noa. Tapu and noa are critical aspects of Te Ao Māori, and in this particular instance their significance and observance within Te Ara Nunumi – Bereavement Pathways Māori tikanga, is associated with Tangihanga and the Māori worldview of dying and death.

The Whakaruruhau identified the need for tapu and noa to be articulated as a critical component of this kaupapa, in a manner that befits the kawa and tikanga of the whānau, hapū, and iwi concerned.

The Whakaruruhau and consultation networks included representation from all core client groups, marae representatives, tertiary providers and wānanga. Consultation with internal and external stakeholders raised no objections to the outcomes of this review. The review of the unit standards listed below was endorsed by all those consulted.

Main changes

- Standards 21433, 21434, 21436, 23640 and 23641 were reclassified from the subfield Tikanga to the subfield Te Ara Nunumi – Bereavement Pathways Māori; and standards 21435 and 21437 were designated expiring and will not be replaced.
- The following explanatory note was included in the standards:
Tapu and Noa are inextricably interwoven throughout all kaupapa concerning Te Ara Nunumi – Bereavement Pathways Māori. These elements will be explored in the context of this unit standard according to whānau, hapū, iwi variation in kawa and tikanga.
- Outcomes were rewritten.
- Levels and credits were decreased for standards 21433, 21434, 23640, and 23641.

Category D unit standards will expire at the end of December 2013
