

FIELD SERVICE SECTORRepublication of Logistics Operations qualification*National Diploma in Logistics Operations [Ref: 0960]

Tranzqual ITO has republished the qualification above, which was reviewed and designated expiring in November 2010, to include additional reverse transition.

Date version republishedJanuary 2011*Reason for the republication

The expiring qualification was republished to include additional reverse transition in response to concerns that some candidates would not be able to complete the requirements of the qualification as a result of the review of the First Line Management domain.

Main changes resulting from the revision

Reverse transition was included in this qualification to allow existing candidates to finish. This qualification contains the First Line Management domain, which has been replaced by other classifications. Reverse transition allows candidates to complete the qualification using either standards from the expiring domain or alternative standards.

The following exemptions were added to the exemption table:

Standards from	Are treated as Standards from
Business > Business Environment > Business Culture and Environment	Business > Management > First Line Management
Health > Occupational Health and Safety > Workplace Health and Safety Management	Business > Management > First Line Management

National Diploma in Logistics Operations [Ref: 0960]

Changes to structure and content

- Reverse transition was added to version 1 of the qualification.

Transition

This transition has been included to ensure that all candidates currently enrolled in version 1 of the qualification are able to complete the requirements of that version.

The last date to meet the requirements of the qualification is 31 December 2012.

For the purposes of this qualification, people who have gained credit for standards in the following classifications are exempt from the requirement to gain credit for standards in the expiring classification: First Line Management.
