New expiry date

Summary

In 2010, it was drawn to the attention of Skills Active Aotearoa Limited that the National Certificate in Sport (Coaching) (Level 4) [Ref: 0444] included unit standards which were expiring without replacement. Therefore, the expiry date of these unit standards was extended to 31 December 2012 to match the expiry date of [Ref: 0444], which was also designated expiring in 31 December 2012.

Other unit standards in this qualification had also been designated expiring and replaced with other unit standards. Transition arrangements were therefore added to the qualification to allow people to meet the requirements of the qualification with credit for the expiring unit standards' replacements.

Main changes
