Subfield	Domain	ID

The Hospitality Standards Institute has extended the expiry date of the unit standards listed above.

Date new versions published

November 2011

Summary

The Hospitality Standards Institute is responding to a training provider who sought a change to the expiry date to these standards which are embedded in a local programme. The introduction of the Targeted review of Qualifications means that the current local programme will expire and replaced by a New Zealand qualification. This extension maintains the viability of those standards and the local programme in the interim.
