April 2013

New expiry date

December 2014

Summary

In January 2013, MQS received a request from a provider for the reinstatement of the unit standards, as they are in the compulsory and/or optional section of the National Certificate in Māori Business and Management [Ref: 0365], and the National Diploma in Māori Business and Management with an optional strand in Iwi Management [Ref: 0366].

The reinstatement of the unit standards and change to their expiry date will ensure candidates have time to complete the requirements of these qualifications.

Main changes

The expiry date of the unit standards has been changed from 31 December 2012 to 31 December 2014.
