Review of NZQA National Qualifications Services CMRs

NZQA National Qualifications Services (NQS) has completed the review and expiry of the Consent and Moderation Requirements (CMR) listed above.

Expiry date

28 February 2015

Summary of review

CMR Ref: 0151

During 2009, the New Zealand Qualifications Authority exited from standard setting responsibility for Christian Theological and Ministries unit standards. This occurred as part of a prioritisation and rationalisation exercise, with all unit standards associated with CMR Ref: 0151 set to expire on 31 December 2013. With all unit standards associated with CMR Ref: 0151 expired, the CMR itself has now expired.

CMRs Refs: 0178 and 0220

From 2010, the New Zealand Qualifications Authority, National Qualifications Services team undertook the review of all curriculum related unit standards they had standard setting responsibility for. As part of this process the unit standards were either expired or replaced by achievement standards. With all of the unit standards associated with CMR's Ref: 0178 and 0220 expired, the CMRs themselves have now expired.

CMR Ref: 0087

In August 2008, following a prolonged process of consultation with stakeholders, NQS exited from standards-setting responsibility for unit standards in the domain Animal Training. This occurred as part of a prioritisation and rationalisation exercise, with all unit standards associated with CMR Ref: 0087 set to expire on 31 December 2011. With all unit standards associated with CMR Ref: 0087 expired, the CMR itself has now expired.

Main changes

CMRs Refs: 0087, 0151, 0178 and 0220 have expired and will not be replaced.
