Summary of the review and consultation process

These qualifications resulted from a review of the health, disability and social services sectors' education and employment pathways as part of the Targeted Review of Qualifications (TRoQ).

The review process included an analysis of the sectors' learning needs and extensive consultation with stakeholders working in and with the sector to provide health, disability and social services to people, family/whanau and the wider community.

The sectors confirmed the on-going need for a suite of new and replacement qualifications recognising shared graduate capabilities and providing education pathways for learners.
