The next qualification review is planned to take place during 2020.

Summary of review and consultation process

The review occurred as a result of the mandatory review of Architectural Aluminium Joinery qualifications, part of the Targeted Review of Qualifications (TRoQ) – Allied Trades. The review involved extensive communications, consultation, meetings, working group activities and feedback with stakeholders.

Industry and other stakeholders confirmed the need for the four Architectural Aluminium Joinery qualifications to provide appropriate knowledge and skills for those working in the industry.

The existing National qualifications have been replaced by a New Zealand qualification as detailed below.
