Summary of review and consultation process

The review of New Zealand Certificate in Fellmongery and Leather Processing (Level 4) [Ref: 2492] commenced in June 2019. An External Working Group (EWG) was formed to review the qualification. EWG members had the responsibility of contributing their expertise to qualification updates as well as liaising with their networks on findings over the duration of the review. The qualification was updated from feedback with the wider stakeholder consultation process and signed off in September 2019.

Main changes resulting from the review

Changes are as follows:

- Credit value for graduate outcomes 1 and 2 have been reversed to 10 credits and 15 credits respectively to correct an error in version 1 which made the qualification unachievable.
- Legislation and guidelines have been updated.
