Summary of review and consultation process

Management Committees and the NZBED structure itself (representatives of industry) ensures that the qualification outcomes are regularly reviewed as to their fitness for purpose and need.

Need and strategic purpose of the qualification were confirmed as being still fit for purpose and required by the sector, with minor changes and updates required to the qualification.

Main changes resulting from the review

- Revision of graduate outcomes after comparison with Chartered Member (CMEngNZ Engineering Technician) criteria
- Updates to documentation to align with NZQA qualification template and current practice.
