

Field Sciences

Review and expiry of Conservation unit standards

Subfield	Domain	ID
Environment	Conservation	14732, 16676, 20805, 26289

The Skills Organisation has completed the review of the unit standards listed above.

Date new versions published

October 2019

Summary

These unit standards have been designated expiring due to low usage and because they are no longer fit for purpose. Organisations with consent to assess were consulted by email. The existing qualifications containing these unit standards will be discontinued as scheduled.

The associated National Certificates listing these unit standards are being expired as the Conservation sector's needs are better served by the current New Zealand Certificate in Conservation (Operations) (Level 4) [Ref: 2963].

Main changes

- The unit standards were designated as expiring without replacement.

These Category D unit standards will expire at the end of December 2020

Detailed list of unit standards – classification, title, level, and credits

Key to review category
A	Dates changed, but no other changes are made - the new version of the standard carries the same ID and a new version number
B	Changes made, but the overall outcome remains the same - the new version of the standard carries the same ID and a new version number
C	Major changes that necessitate the registration of a replacement standard with a new ID
D	Standard will expire and not be replaced

Sciences > Environment > Conservation

ID	Title	Level	Credit	Review Category
14732	Explain philosophical basis for conservation management decisions	4	4	D
16676	Maintain recreational tracks using hand and power tools	3	5	D
20805	Assist with the building and repair of buildings and structures in remote conservation sites	3	5	D
26289	Demonstrate basic knowledge of the application of legislation to conservation activities	3	2	D