The Māori Qualification Services (MQS) has completed the extension of expiry of the unit standards listed above.

Date new versions published

January 2020

Summary

MQS revised these standards to extend the expiry date of the above unit standards.

Main changes

The consultation process was undertaken between MQS and a programme developer to extend the date of expiry of the above unit standards from December 2019 to 31 December 2020 so:

- The planned programme can be completed
- The learners are not disadvantaged in following their pathways to further learning or employment.
