Republication of Motor Industry qualification

National Certificate in Motor Industry (Coachbuilding) with strands in Passenger Service Vehicles, Commercial Vehicles, and Motor Homes and Caravans [Ref: 0413]

MITO New Zealand Incorporated has republished the qualification listed above.

Reason for the republication

The last date of assessment of the National qualification has been extended with the support of industry stakeholders, to allow the completion of the qualification for learners impacted by the Covid19 lockdown period.

MITO are now actively encouraging learners that require units to be completed for the achievement of the National Certificate to present themselves for assessment as soon as possible.

Associated unit standards that are expiring have also had their last dates of assessment extended.
