Summary

The unit standards listed above were reviewed in consultation with key stakeholders, as part of a scheduled review, to ensure they were fit for purpose and to update them as necessary. Input and feedback were invited from all providers with consent to assess, via web consultation. In addition, Careerforce conducted face-to-face and virtual hui with key industry and sector representatives.

To ensure fitness for purpose, the consultation asked explicit questions around the relevance of language (phrasing, terminology, jargon), processes, competencies required from trainees and barriers to assessment. The review period spanned August through November 2020, at which stage the standards proceeded through Careerforce's internal QA processes.
