Summary of review and consultation process

The qualifications listed above were revised to clarify the structure of the optional strands and corresponding credits.

A working group consisting of industry representatives and the provider were involved in the revision process from and have endorsed the changes. Qualification drafts and an explanation for the revision were emailed to all industry users of the qualification in March 2022, requesting feedback, comments, and suggestions on the drafts. These are also available on the Hanga-Aro-Rau Manufacturing, Engineering and Logistic Workforce Development Council's website.
