Summary

The Last Date of Assessment (LDA) of version 4 of the unit standards listed above is currently 31 December 2023. An extension of the LDA to 31 December 2025 will allow those with consent to assess to continue to use these unit standards to support ākongā/learners until such time as they are reviewed.

These unit standards fall within the coverage of the upcoming Agriculture Combined review, which will be initiated in early 2024. Skill standards will be developed during this review, which will then be available for use in place of unit standards across the relevant domains.
