The Ringa Hora Services Workforce Development Council has completed the review of the Cook Islands Tourism unit standards listed above.

Date new versions published

February 2023

Planned review date

December 2027

Summary

Ringa Hora reviewed the 9 Cook Island Tourism standards due for review in 2020. The purpose of the review was to determine whether the standards were and continue to be useful and relevant to the sector.

Consultation with key stakeholders and organisations with consent to assess was undertaken between August and October 2022, and feedback confirmed the ongoing need for the standards with minimal change.

Main changes

- The standards have been updated to reflect terminology used in the current template, where Explanatory Notes are Guidance Information, and Evidence requirements are Performance criteria.
- Guidance information has been updated to include an additional reference resource, and a few minor formatting changes have been made. There have been no changes to content of the outcomes or performance criteria.
- Some titles have been changed to better match with the current industry standards.
- Definitions have been added to some standards along with some performance criteria that have changed/revised to match industry standards.
- Last date for assessment has been added for all superseded versions.
- The unit standards have been updated to reflect the change of standard setting body.

The last date for assessment of superseded versions of Category B unit standards is December 2024
