Summary of development/review and consultation process

The qualifications listed above were reviewed as part of the scheduled review cycle.

The review process was structured to ensure the stated aims and graduate profile outcomes of the above qualification/s remain relevant, are effectively met and best serve the need of key stakeholders.

The process was directed by QRC's Head of School in collaboration with the programme development lead and Campus Principal.

The review was conducted through

- 1) Information generation providing evidence of process and procedure pertaining to continued qualification relevancy, structure and outcomes.
- 2) Self-review of programme delivery (single provider) providing evidence of effective indicators for qualification suitability
- 3) Qualitative input from key stakeholder feedback (Programme Lead, Industry Advisory Board, Industry providers, graduates)

Consultation and communication were facilitated through interviews, convening committees, structured surveys/forms.

Main changes resulting from the review process

Qualifications were transferred to the current template.

Minor wording changes to reflect current practice.
