Summary of development/review and consultation process
The mandatory review for the Manaaki Marae Qualifications (x4) is a critical process that ensures the qualifications remain relevant, culturally aligned, and effective in fostering the principles of manaakitanga within the marae context. The review involved Whakaruruhau representatives who use the qualifications and have an invested interest in the review process and outcomes of these qualifications, to ensure they continue to meet the evolving needs and aspirations of whānau, hapū, iwi and hāpori. Their ongoing commitment to quality and cultural relevance underscores the importance of Manaaki marae in preserving and promoting Māori wellbeing and identity.

Main changes resulting from the development/review process
Updated ngā mātāpono and realignment of Strategic Purpose Statement and Graduate Profile Outcomes. Update to Award statement and Evidence requirements for consistency removed.
